

About the project:

The client would like to develop a Chinese version ecommerce website and sell their Jewelry and diamond products. The client provides us a set of word files for translation once the project is confirmed.

CCJK Solution:

CCJK is a highly specialized translation and localization company providing professional translation services for Jewelry and diamond products. We also can offer the translation services for other luxury products and the most prestigious international names in the field of fashion, furs, leatherwear, accessories, jewelry, luxury watches, cosmetics, perfumery and wines – spirits.

Before the translation starts, we analyzed all of the files and have a glance of the files and then picked up some terms and glossary from them.

After that, we choose a skilled translator who has several years of experience in jewelry and diamond materials translation. When translating the files, the translators also searched the related materials from the internet to make sure of the translation is of high quality, zbird.com is one of the referred materials.

After the first round of translation finished, a second translator was engaged in editing the translation and then a third one proofreading them. Finally, our project manager have a final checking all set of file and make sure everything is fine before the delivery.
