About The Project:

Sun Fortune Trading (Suzhou) Co., Ltd. approached us to translate its code of conduct from German to Chinese. This project involved translating a critical document that outlines the company's ethical standards, policies, and guidelines, requiring precision and cultural sensitivity in the translation process.

The Services include:

German-to-Chinese Translation

Our Solution:

We assigned the best native Chinese translators with extensive experience to manage the project to ensure 100% accurate translations. The project required the translation of approximately 5,000 words. The client had deep trust and confidence in CCJK's translation service, and they didn't ask for any trial tests. Since the client's sales teams had already seen our portfolio and were aware of our goodwill in the global marketplace.

CCJK promises to deliver quality translation within 3 working days. We have established robust translation project management and QA processes over the past two decades that allow us to deliver the best quality work with the quickest turnaround. Within 3 days, CCJK delivered the translation to the client, and the client came back with a small suggested revision. The CCJK team agrees with the suggestions and delivers the revisions promptly. The client is quite impressed by CCJK's fast response. It allowed us to build long-term relationships with the clients, and one month later, the client came back to CCJK for more translation.
