

LITHUANIA BUSINESS AND TRANSLATION

The Republic of Lithuania located in the east coast of the Baltic Sea, the capital is Vilnius. Lithuania is a historical ancient country. It is also the member of European Union, NATO, and several other international organization members. The main language is Lithuanian and Russian, Lithuanian is the official language.

Since Lithuania declared independence on March 11, 1990, the economy keep continuing to grow, which is one of the fastest economic development growing countries of the Central and Eastern European region. Lithuania open economy, and encourage foreign investment, and also encourage foreign investment.

Lithuania is well-developed in industry and agriculture, and it towards market economy through privatization of enterprises after independence, the economic situation is basically stable.

There are three free economic zones: Kaunas, Klaipeda and Siauliai, where have a good investment environment. Industry is the most important economy element in Lithuania, mainly made up by mining and quarrying, manufacturing and energy industry three departments, and the production of high-precision machine tools, instrumentation, and computer product sold to more than 80 countries and regions in the world.

Vilnius, the capital, the country's industrial center, which industrial output

Our Services

Document
Translation Services

Interpretation
Services

Desktop
Publishing Services

Video
Translation Solutions

value accounted for more than two-thirds of the whole country. As to agriculture, the high level of animal husbandry accounts for more than 90 percent of agricultural output. And the electronics, textiles and food processing industry is also well developed, the export of sugar, milk, meat has certain advantages.

Since year 2002, macroeconomic conditions has been further improved, financial, tax reform got success, the privatization process deepened, market supply and demand improved, foreign capital inflows increased. The economic maintains rapid growth

Lithuania access to NATO on March 29, 2004, and join the EU on May 1, and is committed to the further expansion of NATO and the EU, pursue an active foreign policy, emphasize on good-neighborly relationship and friendly cooperation, make many efforts to expand its political influence.

At the same time, actively participate in international affairs, and it has joined over 60 international and regional organizations. Due to the more and more foreign activities and business, to solve the language problem is paramount importance.

Lithuanian, as the official language, there are about 4 million Lithuanian users. The Lithuanian is one of existing two Baltic language family (the other is Latvian). More than 500,000 Lithuanian people abroad, the vast majority are still use Lithuanian, who mainly lived in the United States, Brazil, Argentina, Central and Western Europe.

Lithuanian history is more ancient than Latvian. The dialect discrepancy is very large, and which can mainly divided into two branches: Lowland Lithuanian, including three kinds of tongues; Highland Lithuanian, including four kinds of tongues. The Modern standard Lithuanian

Our Services

Document Translation Services

Interpretation Services

Desktop Publishing Services

Video Translation Solutions

language is on the basis of the Highland Lithuanian dialect, formed in the late 19th century, early 20th century.

To facilitate the business of each country and Lithuanian, our corporation CCJK is dedicated to provide the professional translation service from other language into Lithuanian. No matter website translation and design, brochure translation and desktop, or just WORD file translation etc, our team is always highly responsible for each small detail to ensure our client the best quality, in order to reach mutual success.

Our Services

Document
Translation Services

Interpretation
Services

Desktop
Publishing Services

Video
Translation Solutions