

PREDICATE TRANSFORM

Besides subjects, we also select the predicates for those sentences without obviously predicates. We use the conjunctions to express the paratactic and time relations. For example:

1) □□□□□□□□

He neither loves her nor hates her.

2) □□□□□□□□□□□□

The company should increase loans and expand production.

3) □□□□□□□□□□

The plan crashed into trees and exploded.

4) □□□□□□□□

She brushed her teeth and went to bed.

5) □□□□□□□□□□□□

I waited and waited but he did not come.

6) □□□□□□□□□□

He had a high fever and went to see the doctor yesterday.

Also we will use the adjectives phrase, noun phrase and preposition phrases as the function of predicates.
